NOBODY DOES IT BETTER

"AWE TALISMAN SEES POSSIBILITIES THAT OTHERS DO NOT."

...ABOUT US

On November 2, 2006 a new kind of company is formed. Combining the well received Talisman Companies, ("Talisman") with Arthur Weiner Enterprises, ("AWE"), the resulting venture represents a company with a long history in the art of development and redevelopment, an innovative outlet center division, and AWE's strong tenant and developer representation in the shopping center industry. Additionally, AWE Talisman's state-of-the-art marketing and tourism division has received numerous awards and acclamation for its innovation. Combined with hands-on operational and construction expertise, there has emerged a full service innovative development and leasing company. Fashion Outlets, the visionary outlet division, is the focus of AWE Talisman. Fashion Outlets combines innovative architectural and design with targeted marketing programs.
